

World Hepatitis Day

July 28th

Get the facts... be safe!!!

You can get vaccinated for Hep A and B; there is no vaccination for Hep C
 Know your status - get tested

Hepatitis A, B and C is a disease caused by a virus that can damage your liver

Know your treatments for Hep B and C. Learn your options...

Don't share!

or

Needles... even piercing equipments

Don't use other peoples:

- toothbrushes,
- razors,
- Nail Clippers,

Use don't share snorting
 Straws or crack pipes.

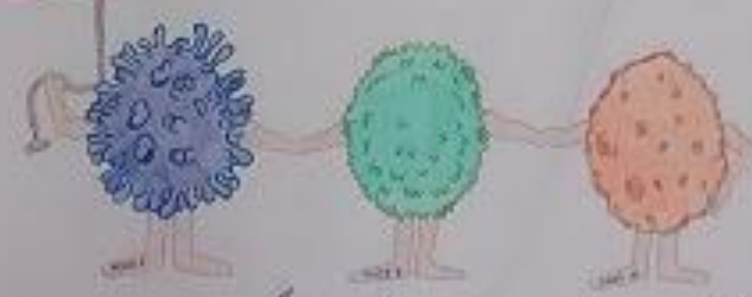

Time!
 Time!

Prevent the spread of Hep A, B, and C

Did you know?

- About 40 million people around the world and about 60,000 people in Canada, have Hep B or C
- Many people don't know they have Hepatitis C because sometimes there aren't any symptoms.

If you have any questions about hepatitis A, B and C, ask at Health Care Services.